एकलोव

Haridwar is one of the holiest cities in India, located in the state of Uttarakhand, at the foothills of the Shivalik ranges where the river Ganga (Ganges) emerges from the Himalayas and enters the plains. It is considered a gateway to the Char Dham Yatra (Kedarnath, Badrinath, Gangotri, Yamunotri) and holds immense cultural, spiritual, and historical significance.

- Haridwar means "Gateway to God"
- It is one of the seven holiest cities (Sapta Puri) in Hinduism
- The Kumbh Mela, one of the world's largest religious gatherings, is held here every 12 years.

* Famous Ghats & Rituals

Har Ki Pauri - The most sacred ghat where people take holy dips in the Ganga to cleanse their sins.
Ganga Aarti - A mesmerizing ritual held every evening with chants, lamps, and offerings to the river.

* Temples & Spiritual Spots

| • Mansa Devi Temple | • Chandi Devi Temple |
| • Maya Devi Temple | • Bharat Mata Mandir |

* Culture & Lifestyle

- Known for its yoga, meditation, and Ayurveda centers.
- Vegetarian food is predominant; alcohol and non-vegetarian food are officially banned within the city.
- Bustling bazaars with items like Rudraksha malas, idols, Ayurvedic medicines, and handicrafts.
